Cabrera Capital Adds Public Sector Expertise Manny Perez to join firm's real estate division

CHICAGO – Cabrera Capital Partners, LLC (“Cabrera”) announced Friday that Manuel “Manny” Perez will join the firm in November as a Senior Vice President in the Real Estate Division.

“We are excited to add Manny Perez to our growing team at Cabrera Capital,” said Martin Cabrera, CEO of Cabrera. “Manny's depth of experience, entrepreneurial acumen, and proven leadership skills are perfectly suited to enhance and expand Cabrera's national footprint.”

Perez most recently served as Deputy Mayor for Intergovernmental Affairs at the City of Chicago, having been appointed by Mayor Lori E. Lightfoot in 2020. “Working with a wide variety of stakeholders to advance the Mayor’s agenda for Chicago has been an incredible experience and I am proud of what we have accomplished,” Perez said. “I look forward to joining Cabrera Capital and being a part of its growing real estate platform.”

Perez’s prior experience includes acting as Managing Deputy Director within the Mayor’s Intergovernmental Affairs team.

Robert Aguilar, President of Cabrera, added: “Manny will hit the ground running to expand the reach and impact of Cabrera Capital Partners. His responsibilities will include implementing cost-effective financing solutions for our clients, as well as strategic development for current and future real estate projects. We are excited to have Manny join our team.”

Perez is a 2016 graduate of the Civic Leadership Academy of the University of Chicago Harris School of Public Policy and received his undergraduate degree from Princeton University.
