Cabrera Capital Continues Expansion with Public Finance Hires in Texas

Chicago — Cabrera Capital Markets (“Cabrera”) announces that Ed Sanchez and Ricardo Salazar have joined the Public Finance Investment Banking division of the firm and will be located in Austin and Dallas, respectively. “Cabrera Capital Markets’ continued expansion in Texas’ Public Finance landscape is part of the firm’s overall growth model and we are excited about the firm’s commitment to Texas”, said Mario Carrasco, who joined Cabrera Capital Markets in April as the firm’s Head of Investment Banking – Public Finance.

Ed Sanchez has over 25 years of related institutional asset management experience and was most recently employed with Federated Hermes Inc. as a Senior Vice President, Institutional Business Division, for the past 14 years. His previous experience includes Lehman Brothers, Barclays Capital, PFM Asset Management, and Texas Association of School Boards. Ed has developed an array of relationships that will serve Cabrera well.

Ricardo Salazar was most recently employed with Dallas Independent School District for the past 13 years as a Manager, Financial Planning & Analysis – Treasury Services and was previously employed with First Southwest. Ricardo’s experience at Dallas ISD and First Southwest will augment and provide depth to Cabrera’s growing Texas and National Public Finance practice.

“Ed and Ricardo’s addition to Cabrera’s Texas Public Finance team provides strategic growth in an area where we look forward to forging long-term partnerships in serving our clients,” said Martin Cabrera, CEO and Founder of Cabrera Capital. “We have an ambitious growth strategy, and our Texas expansion will play an integral part in achieving our goals.”
